

Pizza Capers unveils first ever Vegan Range

The gourmet pizza brand introduced its Sweet Potato Vegan Lovers pizza.

Pizza Capers General Manager Sunny Olak said the brand has seen an increase in interest from customers towards Vegan-friendly products, and wanted to embrace this trend without compromising on their famous generous toppings and crave-able pizza flavors .

“We pride ourselves on our commitment to creating new products based on customers’ preferences and current food trends,” Olak said.

“As a result of our passion for all things pizza, we put our heads together and have come up with a number of Vegan menu options that simply cannot be matched by our competitors in either quality or taste.”

Containing no meat or animal products and no dairy or egg products, the Sweet Potato Vegan Lovers Pizza is being offered alongside an assortment of Vegan-friendly Calzones including Garlic & Fresh Rosemary, Classic Garlic and Sweet Chilli.

Customers also have the option to add Vegan Cheese as a customisable topping to other Capers pizzas.

“We’re not only ticking the box for Vegans but also for those who are lactose sensitive,” Olak said.

The Sweet Potato Vegan Lovers Pizza features sweet potato, button mushrooms, crushed garlic, pizza sauce and vegan cheese, garnished with rosemary, salt flakes and sweet chilli sauce.

“In true Pizza Capers style, the new Vegan option is loaded with fresh, quality ingredients; it’s enough to entice even the biggest meat lovers!” Olak said.
